Queridos padres,

A los niños les cuesta procesar toda la lectura en voz alta de una sola vez. Es una pausa y hacer preguntas para comprobar la comprensión. En este documento, encontrará lugares para hacer una pausa y hacer preguntas guía, estas preguntas ayudarán a los niños a detenerse y pensar en lo que están escuchando.

How did the boy feel with his curtains flip-flapping?

What in the picture shows that?

What does “rustle” mean?

What is James thinking when he looks at the shadow?

What was making the curtains move?

Why James hid his face in the blanket?

What did daddy do to help James?

How was he feeling now?

What are some of the things mama and daddy made with the shadows?

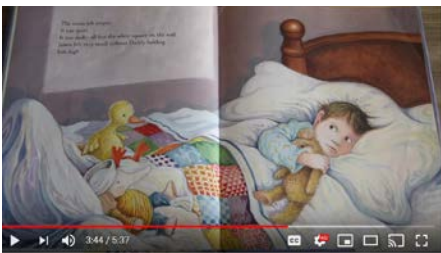

When daddy was telling the story, what were the two spiders trying to do?

Which animals the spider tried to scare? Were they scared of the spider? Why or why not?

Why the spiders were asking for help?

Who helped the spiders? How?

What does it mean “James felt very small”?

Why was James feeling that way?

What is the problem?

What do you think he should do?

How did James solve his problem?

Can you tell me what happened 1st?

What happened next?

What happened next?

What happened at the end?
